Student Name
AP English Language and Composition
10 November 2018

Coolest Title Ever

1. Ensure you have headed your paper correctly including page #s; double spaced? Times New Roman #11 or #12 font?
2. After each paragraph, hit ENTER only ONCE!
3. Thesis statement should be in bold
4. All in-text citations are written correctly
5. All in-text citations match an entry on your Works Cited page
6. Only sources that you cite IN THE PAPER are listed on the Works Cited page
7. You have cited your primary source in the paper
8. Primary source is listed in bold on the Works Cited page with an explanation beneath
9. You have cited at least 3 sources from newspapers, magazines, journals, or books (highly credible sources)
10. Each body paragraph begins with a topic sentence relating to your thesis
11. You have used at least one note in each body paragraph (except perhaps in your graph paragraph)
12. You explain why the note is significant and how it helps to prove your topic sentence/thesis statement
13. You have elaborated on notes with details, examples, and explanations
14. Direct quotes are no more than three lines in length.
15. You have introduced paraphrasing AND cited paraphrases at their ends.
16. Your voice is evident in the paper; you do not rely entire on pasting notes together.
17. You have not used 1st or 2nd person (I, you, me, we, us, our) unless it appears in a quote
18. You have not used contractions (weren’t = were not)
19. You have written out numbers less than 10. 6 = six
20. Your graph includes a citation from easybib.com beneath it AND on the Works Cited page
21. You explain HOW the graph helps to prove your thesis
22. You have met the page requirements
23. You have limited your use of monosyllabic words, choosing instead sophisticated language and polysyllabic words
24. You have edited your paper for run-on sentences, comma issues, capitalization and spelling errors.

25. Remember to INCLUDE your Works Cited page when you print the paper